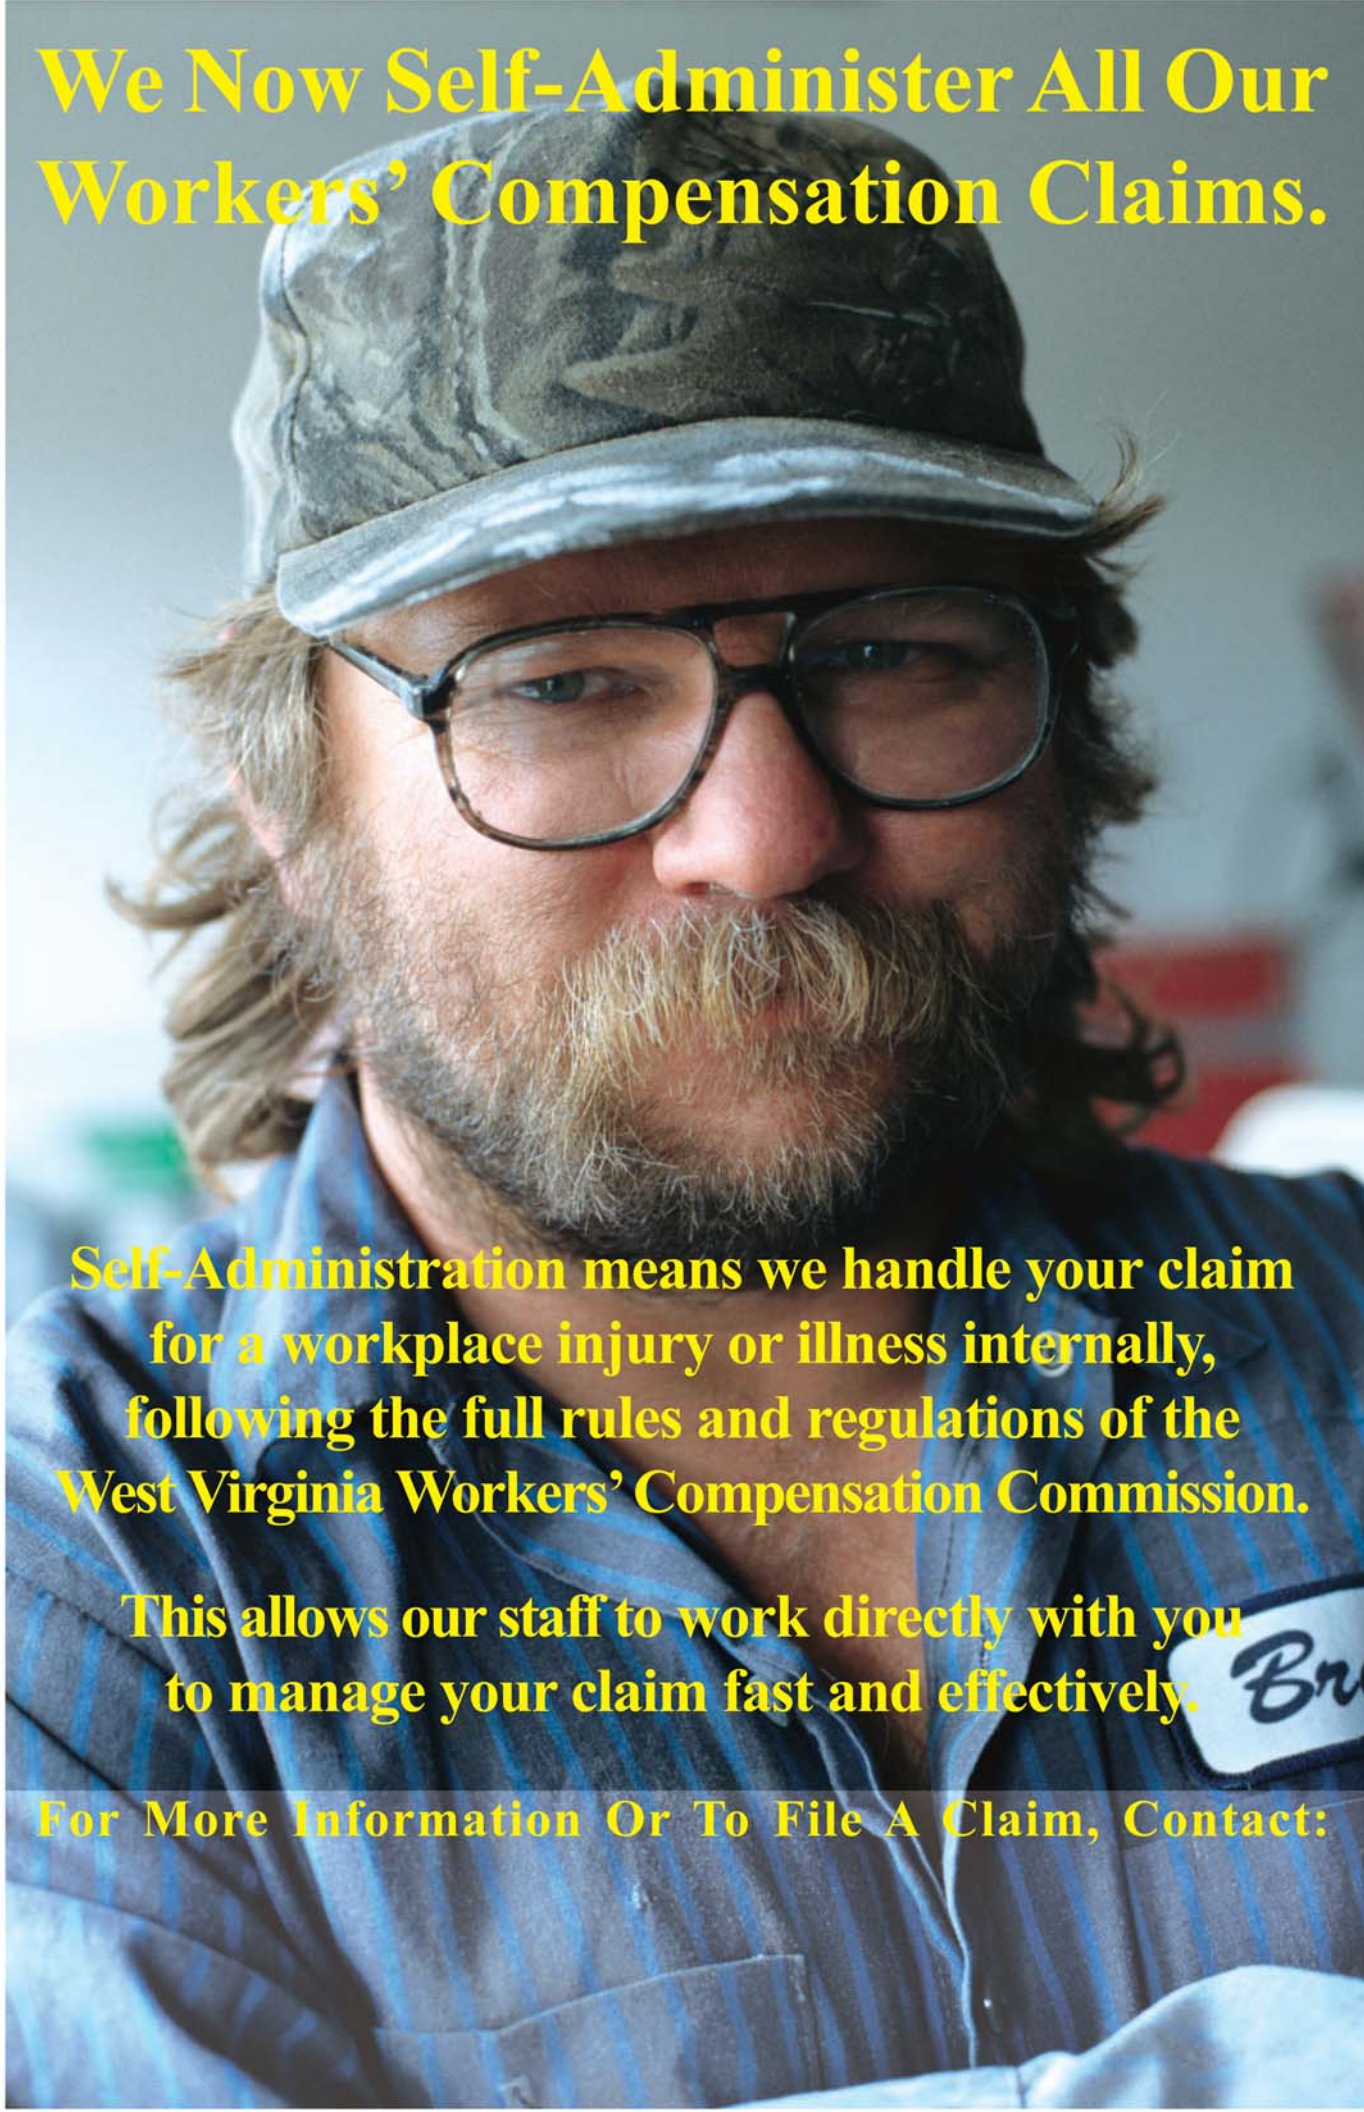
We Now Self-Administer All Our Workers' Compensation Claims.
Mary Ann
Self-Administration means we handle your claim for a workplace injury or illness internally, following the full rules and regulations of the West Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission.
This allows our staff to work directly with you to manage your claim fast and effectively.
For More Information Or To File A Claim, Contact:



We Now Self-Administer All Our Workers' Compensation Claims.
Self-Administration means we handle your claim for a workplace injury or illness internally, following the full rules and regulations of the West Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission.
This allows our staff to work directly with you to manage your claim fast and effectively.
For More Information Or To File A Claim, Contact: