Legislative Rule
Title 113, Series 1

~~2.6.~~ 2.7. "Surplus" means funds being held in the West Virginia Health Insurance Plan Fund pursuant to W. Va. Code §33-48-7a that are above those amounts necessary to provide fully for the expected costs of claims and other expenses listed in W. Va. Code §33-48-7(a).

§113-1-3. Determination of Surplus.

3.1. The Board shall periodically, but no less than annually, determine if a surplus exists.

3.2. In making a determination concerning the existence of a surplus, the Board may consider an actuarial analysis and any other information developed by or presented to the Board that demonstrates the status of a surplus.

§113-1-4. Eligibility for Premium Subsidy.

4.1. In the event the Board determines that a surplus exists, the Board shall create a schedule of premium subsidies that varies with income to assist low income eligible individuals in paying the premium costs of the Plan. The Board may adopt as many income categories within the premium subsidy schedule as it finds necessary and practical.

4.2. For the purposes of determining the eligibility of a person for a premium subsidy, ~~the household income shall be based on the preceding twelve months and the Board may consider information obtained from the West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources or any other state or federal agency.~~ The eligibility of low income eligible individuals who receive a premium subsidy shall be ~~periodically, but no less than annually,~~ annually by the Board.

4.3. No person shall be eligible for a premium subsidy if that person's premium is paid by a third party who is not a family member of the person.

4.4. Whenever the Board finds that there is a significant possibility that premium subsidies may result in an over-expenditure of the surplus, the Board may discontinue the use of the surplus to subsidize premiums until the Board determines that the possibility for over-expenditure no longer exists. The Board shall give low income eligible individuals who are receiving a premium subsidy thirty days' notice prior to such a discontinuance.

§113-1-5. Delegation of Authority to Plan Administrator.

5.1. The Board may delegate or assign any of its authority or duties set forth in this rule to the Plan Administrator.
