

All West Virginia Insurance Candidates who tested between September 26, 2013, through August 11, 2017, a refund of $17 per exam is due to you. This refund includes all candidates regardless of pass, fail, or no-show. If you have not previously received notification regarding this refund, please contact Pearson VUE using the following email <http://www.pearsonvue.com/wv/insurance/> to receive your refund or for any inquiries.

To facilitate payment, please include your full name, current mailing address including zip code, and phone number in your email. If your name or address changed since you tested with Pearson, please indicate the name and/or address you used previously.