PRESS RELEASE

Dodrill Names Hunter Deputy Insurance Commissioner

Charleston, WV – Insurance Commissioner James Dodrill has tapped his General Counsel, Erin Hunter, to serve as Deputy Insurance Commissioner. Hunter has served as General Counsel for the Offices of the Insurance Commissioner for the last year, and served briefly as Acting Commissioner earlier this year before Dodrill's appointment by Governor Justice. Hunter will continue as General Counsel in addition to her duties as Deputy Commissioner.

Hunter obtained BA degrees in English Literature and Political Science from West Virginia University. She received her Juris Doctorate degree in 2003 from the West Virginia University College of Law. Hunter began her career at the OIC as an associate attorney in the Regulatory Compliance and Enforcement Division in 2012. She was elevated to General Counsel in 2018.
