Code §33-12B-1 et seq. to authorize such individual to investigate, negotiate or settle insurance claims in this state; an initial home state license does not include a temporary license issued pursuant to the provisions of W.Va. 3.1.c. Submit all additional identifying information required by the West Virginia State Police and the Federal Bureau of Investigation to complete the criminal history record check.

3.2. Code §33-12-1 et seq., W.Va. Code §33-12B-1, et seq. or W.Va. Code §33-12C-1 et seq. and which license is in good standing on, or within the previous sixty (60) days prior to, the date of the subsequent application: Provided, That the Insurance Commissioner may require a complete set of fingerprints and payment of all fingerprint processing fees from an applicant if the previously submitted set of fingerprints is unable to be used to obtain a criminal history record check.

4.1. The Insurance Commissioner may issue a provisional license prior to receipt of a criminal history record check to an applicant who has submitted in proper form the items required by section 3 of this rule if the submission does not disclose any matter that may disqualify the applicant from being licensed. A provisional license issued pursuant to this section shall expire on the earlier of the expiration date set forth on the provisional license or the issuance of the Insurance Commissioner's decision granting or denying the license applied for.

4.2. An applicant seeking a resident insurance producer license or resident insurance adjuster license under change of home state provisions shall, within thirty (30) days after establishing residency in West Virginia, notify the Insurance Commissioner of his or her change of address and contact information and, within ninety (90) days of establishing residency, submit an application to qualify as a resident insurance producer or resident insurance adjuster in West Virginia. The licensee shall submit completed fingerprint forms in a format prescribed by the Insurance Commissioner, including electronic fingerprinting. Upon the Insurance Commissioner's approval of the application, the licensee's status shall be changed from nonresident to resident.

The amount of any collection fee and the manner in which it is to be paid shall be set forth in a contract or agreement between the Insurance Commissioner and the vendor or agency. Applicants are advised that processing time and rejection rates for applications and submissions with paper fingerprint cards may be substantially greater than with electronic fingerprints.
