This list must be updated with the Commissioner within 10 working days every time a person employed by the bondsman as a bondsman, agent, clerk or representative begins or leaves employment.

3.2.2. If the applicant is applying for licensure as a surety bondsman, in addition to the information required pursuant to subdivision 3.2.1 of this rule, the applicant shall also provide:

3.2.3.a. A deposit of cash or approved securities with the Commissioner of an amount to be determined by the Commissioner in accordance with subsections 8.1 and 8.2 of this rule, but shall in no circumstance be less than $10,000;

3.2.3.b. An applicant for a professional bondsman license may make the required deposit by cash, irrevocable letter of credit, or by purchasing a bond through an insurance company licensed and in good standing in this State. All bonds and irrevocable letters of credit must be on a form approved by the Commissioner and must permit the Commissioner to draw down the entire amount, if necessary, to secure the bondsman's obligations.

3.2.3.c. In lieu of cash, bond or irrevocable letter of credit, if an applicant for a professional bondsman license uses real estate as security for the bonding authority, the applicant shall have an attorney admitted to practice in this State prepare a Title Certificate for Bond on an approved form, as located at www.wvinsurance.gov, that he or she has examined the title to the real estate and that record title to said real estate is in the name of the applicant subject to the limitations stated within such certificate.

3.2.3.c.1. The applicant shall submit the following signed declaration with the Title Certificate for Bond: "In the event this application is granted, the applicant will not sell, convey, mortgage or otherwise encumber any of the real estate or other property listed on the Title Certificate for Bond, except the posting of criminal appearance bonds, without first obtaining written approval of the Insurance Commissioner."

3.2.3.c.2. If licensure is approved, the bondsman shall deliver to, and have recorded in, the Office of the Clerk of the County Commission in the county wherein the real estate is located a Notice of Bond Encumbrance on an approved form, as located at www.wvinsurance.gov. The recording fee shall be payable by the licensee.

3.2.3.c.3. A pledge of real estate by a professional bondsman as an approved security shall not be permitted after July 1, 2024. However, a professional bondsman who is licensed by the Commissioner as of July 1, 2024, and has pledged real estate as security to conduct bonding business may continue to use real estate as collateral to operate as a bondsman until his or her license is voluntarily surrendered or revoked by the Commissioner.

3.3. The Commissioner may require any documents reasonably necessary to verify the information in the application and may propound any reasonable interrogatories to an applicant for a license, or on any renewal thereof, relating to qualifications, residence, prospective place of business, and any other matters which, in the opinion of the Commissioner, are deemed necessary or expedient in order to protect the public and ascertain the qualifications of the applicant. The Commissioner may also conduct any reasonable inquiry or investigation relative to the determination of the fitness of the applicant to be licensed or to continue to be licensed including, but not limited to, requiring a criminal history record check as set forth in W. Va. Code §33-12-37. The Commissioner shall keep all documents, material or other information obtained pursuant to section 3 of this rule confidential and said information is not open to public inspection and exempt from disclosure pursuant to subpoena or Chapter 29B of the West Virginia Code. The Commissioner is authorized to use the documents, materials, or other information in furtherance of any regulatory or legal action brought as part of the Commissioner's official duties.

3.4. The application fee for a bail bondsman license is $200, every two years, which shall be paid at the time of application and renewal. The application fee is nonrefundable. Failure to pay the fee at the time of application shall result in a denial of the license. The application fee for a bail bondsman license is in addition to any applicable licensure fee paid by an insurance producer, adjuster, insurer, or other business entity.

3.5. A person whose application is denied may reapply, but the Commissioner shall not consider more than one application submitted by the same person within a six-month period.

3.6. The Commissioner shall establish a process for issuing an official picture identification card to a licensed bail bondsman, which, when issued, must be carried by the bail bondsman at all times when working in the scope of the licensee's employment or occupation as a bail bondsman. A bail bondsman whose license has been revoked, or is otherwise expired or terminated, shall return the picture identification card to the Commissioner within 10 working days. The Commissioner may coordinate with the Division of Motor Vehicles to issue the identification cards described herein if necessary.

3.7. A license issued to a bail bondsman authorizes the licensee to act in that capacity until the license is expired, suspended, or revoked.

3.8. A bail bondsman who employs an agent, clerk or representative may cancel the agent's, clerk's or representative's authority to act for the bail bondsman. When a bail bondsman cancels an agent's, clerk's or representative's authority, the bail bondsman must notify the Commissioner, in writing, within 10 working days.

3.9. If an individual holds a professional bondsman's license and a surety bondsman's license simultaneously, they are considered one license for the purpose of disciplinary actions involving suspension or revocation. However, separate application and renewal fees must be paid for each license.

3.10. Beginning July 1, 2024, the competency of a person applying to the Commissioner for a bail bondsman license shall be determined by examination. A person who is licensed as a bondsman by the Commissioner on or before June 30, 2024, is exempt from the examination requirement. The examination shall test the knowledge of the person concerning the duties and responsibilities of a person engaged in the bonding business and the applicable laws and rules of this state. The examination shall be a multiple-choice test with at least 25 questions, but no more than 50 questions. A person must answer at least 80% of the questions correctly to successfully pass the examination. Each examinee shall pay a $25 fee for each examination to the Commissioner who shall deposit said examination fee into the state treasury for the benefit of the state fund, general revenue.

3.10.1. Any applicant who held a West Virginia bail bondsman license prior to July 1, 2024, but who allowed his or her license to expire while in good standing with the Commissioner, is exempted from examination upon reapplication so long as the application is made within one year of the expiration date of the applicant's license, and further provided that the applicant was not under investigation by the Commissioner for wrongdoing at the time his or her license expired.

3.10.2. Any bail bondsman whose license was suspended or revoked for violation of this rule shall be required to pass a competency test upon any application for re-licensure.

3.10.3. The Commissioner may, at his or her discretion, designate an independent testing service to prepare and administer the examination subject to the direction of, and approval by, the Commissioner. Any examination fees charged by the service shall be paid by the applicant. In addition to examination fees charged by the independent testing service, the independent testing service shall collect and remit to the Commissioner the $25 examination fee as required by subsection 3.10 of this rule.

3.11. A bail bondsman must notify the Commissioner of a change of legal name, residence address, business address, mailing address, e-mail address, or telephone number within 30 days after a change is made.

3.12. Any person who has been convicted of a felony is not qualified to be licensed as a bail bondsman and the Commissioner shall not license any such person. The Commissioner shall revoke or not renew the license of a bail bondsman who is convicted of a felony, after licensure, and shall not renew the license of a bail bondsman who was previously convicted of a felony, and who was issued a license prior to the enactment of this subsection.

§114-103-4. License Renewal.

4.1. Bail bondsman licenses shall be renewed biennially (every two years) by the last day of the birth month of the bondsman, unless revoked or suspended prior thereto by the Commissioner. The expiration year will be established based upon the year of initial licensure.

4.2. The renewal fee for a bail bondsman license is $200. The renewal fee is nonrefundable.

4.3. The renewal application shall include an attestation that the applicant meets the qualifications as set forth in section 3 of this rule.

4.4. The Commissioner shall require a criminal history record check of the licensee at the time of renewal in accordance with W. Va. Code §33-12-37.

§114-103-5. Responsibilities and Prohibited Activities.

5.1. The bonding fee required by a bail bondsman shall be at least 10 percent of the amount of the bond, but shall not, in the aggregate, exceed the amount of the bond. The bonding fee may be paid in full at the time of the issuance of the bond, or at least three percent paid at the issuance of the bond with the remaining percentage to be paid over a period not to exceed 12 months.

5.2. A bail bondsman, or any agent, clerk, or representative thereof shall not, either directly or indirectly, charge, accept, or receive any sum of money, or other thing of value, other than the authorized bonding fee from any person for whom he or she has posted or executed bond, for any other service whatsoever performed in connection with any indictment or charge upon which said person is bailed or held in the State of West Virginia.

5.3. A bail bondsman, or any agent, clerk or representative thereof, shall not, either directly or indirectly, give, donate, lend, contribute or promise to give, donate, loan, or contribute any money, property, entertainment, or other thing of value whatsoever to any attorney, police officer, sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable, jailer, probation officer, clerk, or other attaché of a criminal court, or public official of any character for procuring or assisting in procuring any person to employ said bail bondsman to execute as surety any bond for compensation in any criminal case in the State of West Virginia. It shall further be unlawful for any attorney, police officer, sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable, jailer, probation officer, clerk, bailiff, or other attaché of a criminal court, or public official of any character, to accept or receive from any bail bondsman, or any agent, clerk, or representative thereof, money, property, entertainment, or other thing of value whatsoever for procuring or assisting in procuring any person to employ any bondsman to execute as surety any bond for compensation in any criminal case in the State of West Virginia.

5.4. A bail bondsman, or any agent, clerk, or representative thereof, shall not settle, attempt to settle, procure, or attempt to procure the dismissal of any indictment, information, or charge against any person in custody or held upon bond in the State of West Virginia, with any court, prosecuting attorney or police officer.

5.5. A bail bondsman, or any agent, clerk, or representative thereof, shall not procure, assist in procuring or attempt to procure the retention or employment of any attorney to represent any person charged with a crime in any court in this State. A bail bondsman shall not accept from any attorney, either directly or indirectly, a loan, donation, contribution, or promise to give, loan, donate, or contribute any money, property, entertainment, or other thing of value whatsoever to, or to split or divide any fee or commission with, any attorney for causing or procuring or assisting in causing or procuring any person to employ such attorney in any criminal case in the State of West Virginia.

5.6. A bail bondsman shall not have or attempt to have a personal relationship, which includes but is not limited to any type of a sexual relationship, with any person for whom the bail bondsman has posted a bond for the period during which the bond is posted regardless of whether said personal relationship is consensual or not. A bail bondsman is prohibited from accepting or attempting to obtain any type of personal service, favor, or nonmonetary item in lieu of payment for bond. This subsection is not subject to waiver by anyone under any circumstances.

5.7. A bail bondsman is prohibited from initiating contact with persons for whom arrest warrants are pending for the purpose of soliciting business.

5.8. A bail bondsman, or any agent, clerk, or representative thereof, is prohibited from entering a police precinct, jail, prison, court or other place of detention for the purpose of obtaining employment as a bail bondsman, without having been previously contacted by a person detained, or by some relative, or other authorized person acting for or on behalf of the person detained. Whenever a bail bondsman, or any agent, clerk, or representative thereof, enters a place of detention, he or she shall immediately identify the purpose of the visit and the name of the person who has contacted him or her to request their services.

5.9. No single bond shall be taken or approved which obligates the bail bondsman in any amount exceeding one-half of the bondsman's maximum amount of bonding authority.

5.10. A bail bondsman, or any agent, clerk or representative thereof, shall not impersonate a law enforcement officer or falsely represent that the bondsman is in any way connected with an agency of the federal, state or local government.

5.11. No police officer, sheriff, deputy sheriff, other law enforcement officer, judicial official, attorney, parole officer, probation officer, jailer, clerk, or other attaché of a criminal court may become surety on a bail bond for any person. In addition, no person covered by this subsection may act as an agent, clerk or representative for any bail bondsman or bail bonding business. No such person may have an interest, directly or indirectly, in the financial affairs of any firm or corporation whose principal business is acting as a bail bondsman. However, nothing in this subsection prohibits any such person from being surety upon the bond of his or her spouse, parent, brother, sister, child, grandchild, or dependent.

5.12. A bail bondsman shall not sign or countersign in blank bail bonds, nor shall he give a power of attorney to, or otherwise authorize, anyone to countersign his or her name to bonds unless the person so authorized is a licensed bondsman.

§114-103-6. Qualifications of Sureties on Bail.

6.1. Each and every surety for the release of a person on bail shall be qualified as:

6.1.1. An insurer and represented by a surety bondsman; or

6.1.2. A professional bondsman.

6.2. The Commissioner shall not be liable for any of the incurred liabilities of a bondsman in excess of the surety.

§114-103-7. Receipts for Collateral.

7.1. When collateral security is received by a bail bondsman, a written receipt shall be furnished.

7.2. Receipts shall provide a full description of the collateral received and must:

7.2.1. Be prenumbered and used and provided in consecutive numerical order;

7.2.2. Show the name and address of the bail bondsman;

7.2.3. Show the name and address of the person providing the collateral;

7.2.4. Show the amount and nature of the collateral and the date received;

7.2.5. Show the name of the person accepting collateral; and

7.2.6. Show the total amount of the bond for which the collateral is being accepted, the name of the defendant, the criminal action number of the criminal proceeding, and the jurisdiction in which the criminal action is pending.

7.3. When collateral security is received in the form of cash or check or other negotiable instrument, the bail bondsman shall deposit the cash or instrument within five banking days after receipt, in an established, separate noninterest-bearing trust account in any bank located in West Virginia. The trust account funds under this subsection shall not be commingled with other operating funds of the bondsman.

§114-103-8. Financial Responsibility of Professional Bondsmen.

8.1. Each professional bondsman acting as surety on bail bonds in this State shall, unless real estate is used as security, maintain a deposit of approved securities with and satisfactory to the Commissioner of a value of at least one-tenth the amount of all bonds or undertakings written in this State on which he or she is absolutely or conditionally liable as of the first day of the current month. The amount of this deposit must be reconciled with the bondsman's liabilities as of the first day of each month, but the value of said deposit shall in no event be less than $10,000. The Commissioner shall not be liable for any of the incurred liabilities of the professional bondsman in excess of the pledged security.

8.2. If a professional bondsman secures criminal bonds with real estate, the aggregate amount of the bonds written thereunder cannot exceed an amount equal to five times the unencumbered, current assessed value of the real estate listed (as determined by the county assessor). The Commissioner shall not be liable for any of the incurred liabilities of the professional bondsman in excess of the unencumbered, current assessed value of the real estate.

8.3. A professional bondsman may apply to the Commissioner to increase the limit of his or her aggregate authority in regard to the writing of bonds in this State above the limits set forth in subsections 8.1 and 8.2 of this rule without the need for maintaining additional security. The Commissioner will evaluate those requests on a case-by-case basis with consideration given to any special circumstances that apply, as well as the license history and financial responsibility of the bondsman making the request. A request may be granted on a temporary or permanent basis. Additionally, the Commissioner may, temporarily or permanently, decrease the limit of a professional bondsman's aggregate authority to write bonds below the limits set forth in subsections 8.1 and 8.2 of this rule if the bondsman has shown financial irresponsibility in the conduct of bonding business in this State. A professional bondsman may request a hearing pursuant to W. Va. Code §§33-2-12 and 33-2-13 upon any decision of the Commissioner to deny a request to increase the bondsman's aggregate authority or decrease the bondman's aggregate authority in regard to the writing of bonds in this State.

8.4. If two or more bondsmen join in the writing of a single bond, the penalty of the bond shall be prorated between the several bondsmen, either equally or on the same proportionate basis as the bondsmen participated in the writing of the bond.

8.5. With the approved securities deposited with the Commissioner, the professional bondsman shall at the same time deliver to the Commissioner a power of attorney or assignment on an approved form, as located at www.wvinsurance.gov, executed and acknowledged by the professional bondsman authorizing the sale or transfer of said securities or any part thereof.

8.6. Any professional bondsman, whose security deposits with the Commissioner are, for any reason, reduced in value below the requirements of this rule shall, within 10 working days, deposit such additional securities as are necessary to comply with the provisions of this rule or reduce the excess bond liability. No professional bondsman shall sign, endorse, execute, or become surety on any additional bail bonds, or pledge or deposit any cash, check, or other security of any nature in lieu of a bail bond in this State until the professional bondsman has cured the deficiency. If a bondsman does not cure the deficiency within 10 working days, the license of the bondsman shall be suspended pending a hearing on the matter.

8.7. The Commissioner may deny the renewal of any license held by a professional bondsman if, at the time of the renewal application, the professional bondsman has not complied with or cured a deficiency.

8.8. The deposit provided for in subsection 8.1 of this rule shall constitute a reserve available to meet sums due on forfeiture of any bonds executed by the bondsman. The deposit shall be held in safekeeping by the Commissioner and shall only be used if a bondsman fails to pay an order and judgment of forfeiture after being properly notified, or shall be used if the license of a professional bondsman has been revoked.

8.9. A pro rata portion of the securities shall be returned to the bondsman when the Commissioner is satisfied that the deposit of securities is in excess of the amount required to be maintained with the Commissioner by said bondsman, and all the securities shall be returned if the Commissioner is satisfied that the bondsman has satisfied, or satisfactory arrangements have been made to satisfy, the obligations of the bondsman on all the bondsman's bail bonds written in this State.

8.10. If a bondsman discontinues writing bonds due to death, permanent incapacitation, or some other circumstance that results in the bondsman returning the license issued, and the Commissioner is satisfied that no more bonds can be written against the bondsman's security deposit, the Commissioner shall return the portion of the security deposit in excess of that required to secure the bondsman's outstanding bond liability.

§114-103-9. Cash Securities Held in Trust.

9.1. Cash securities deposited by a professional bondsman with the Commissioner shall be held in trust for the protection and benefit of the holder of bail bonds executed by or on behalf of the bondsman in this State. The account shall be a separate account in the State Treasury designated the "Bail Bondsmen Cash Security Fund" and shall be administered by the Commissioner as set forth in subsection 9.2 of this rule.

9.2. The Commissioner may expend any and all cash securities or utilize the proceeds thereof for the purpose of satisfying the liabilities of the professional bondsman who pledged the cash security on bail bonds given in this State on which the bondsman is liable, but shall only be used if the bondsman fails to pay an order and judgment of forfeiture after being properly notified. The Commissioner shall not expend cash security pledged by one bondsman for the liabilities of another bondsman. The Commissioner shall not be liable for any of the incurred liabilities of the professional bondsman in excess of the pledged cash security.

§114-103-10. Discontinuance of Business; Cancellation of License; Death, Incapacitation or Incompetence of Bail Bondsman.

10.1. Any bail bondsman who discontinues writing bail bonds during the period for which the bail bondsman is licensed, shall inform the Commissioner, in writing, within 30 days after the discontinuance.

10.2. In the case of death, incapacitation, or incompetence of a licensed bail bondsman, the spouse or surviving spouse, next of kin, person or persons holding a power of attorney, guardian, executor or administrator of the bondsman may contract with another licensed bail bondsman to perform those duties to have the licensee's outstanding bail bond obligations resolved. The contract must be filed with the Commissioner and every clerk of court where it can be determined the bondsman has pending outstanding bail bond obligations.

10.3. A bail bondsman may contract to transfer, convey, or assign the bondsman's business to another licensed bail bondsman. The contract shall include a list of the transferring bondsman's pending, outstanding bail bond obligations and shall be filed with the Commissioner. The contract shall allow for the transferring bondsman to transfer, convey, or assign assets to the purchasing bondsman that include, but are not limited to, any cash or approved securities, with the Commissioner as security for bail bonds. Notwithstanding the filing of the contract with the Commissioner, the transferor remains responsible for all outstanding bond obligations until relieved from an individual obligation or satisfaction of any final judgment of forfeiture entered thereon.

§114-103-11. License Suspension and Revocation.

11.1. Any license issued pursuant to this rule may, after notice and hearing pursuant to W. Va. Code

§§33-2-12 and 33-2-13, be suspended or revoked for good cause at any time by the Commissioner. Good cause includes, but is not limited to:

11.1.1. Any cause for which issuance of the license could have been denied;

11.1.2. Violation of any laws of this State, lawful rule, or order of the Commissioner;

11.1.3. Material misstatement, misrepresentation, or fraud in obtaining the license or on the license application or renewal application;

11.1.4. Misappropriation, conversion, or unlawful withholding of monies or property belonging to insurers, insureds, or others received in the conduct of business under the license;

11.1.5. Conviction of, or having entered a plea of guilty or no contest to, any felony crime that substantially relates to the occupation of a bail bondsman and poses a reasonable threat to public safety;

11.1.6. Fraudulent or dishonest practices or demonstrating financial irresponsibility in conducting business under the license;

11.1.7. When the licensee has, in the conduct of affairs under the license, demonstrated incompetency, or untrustworthiness, or conduct or practices rendering the licensee unfit to carry on bonding business or making continuance in the business detrimental to the public interest;

11.1.8. Misrepresentation of the terms of any actual or proposed bond;

11.1.9. Forging the name of another to a bond or application for bond;

11.1.10. Willful failure to return collateral security when the principal is entitled thereto;

11.1.11. Failing to notify the Commissioner of a change of legal name, residence address, business address, mailing address, e-mail address, or telephone number within 30 days after a change is made, or failing to respond to a properly mailed notification within a reasonable amount of time;
