

West Virginia Offices of the Insurance Commissioner

Insurance Fraud Case Sentencing

After a lengthy investigation by the West Virginia Offices of the Insurance Commissioner's Fraud Division, the accused has been sentenced.

A former employee of the Bob Ashley Insurance Agency, Rebecca Bragg, has been sentenced for embezzlement. She will serve four months in jail, then five years on probation. Another hearing will be held in a few months to decide restitution in this case.

"Congratulations for a job well done by our Fraud Division", Insurance Commissioner Jim Dodrill said, "Our office is committed to taking appropriate actions to eliminate fraud in West Virginia".

To report suspected insurance fraud, call the Offices of the Insurance Commissioner's Fraud Division toll free at 1-800-779-6853.